

I am writing in opposition to the challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act by the Consumer Bankers Association. As a customer of Wells Fargo Bank, I do not want unsolicited calls from them or any other bank. It has been extremely nice to have my evenings uninterrupted by businesses soliciting my business. If I need goods or services, I will seek them out.

Nancy J. Leinbach